

The FINRA Investor Education Foundation (FINRA Foundation) and First Nations Development Institute (First Nations) recently published the nation's most comprehensive analysis of the financial capability of American Indian/Alaska Natives, including the financial behavior, attitudes and knowledge of Native peoples. The report, Race and Financial Capability in America: Understanding the Native American Experience, shows that Native Americans—even more so than other minority populations—face difficult financial circumstances and experience high levels of financial fragility.

First Nations and the FINRA Foundation are co-hosting a webinar based on the report on April 13, 2017, at 2 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time (11 a.m. Pacific / Noon Mountain / 1 p.m. Central). Register at this link: <https://attendee.gotowebinar.com/register/8519434288077018371>.
